- Where does most of children's spending money come from?
- What other ways do they use to get some more money?
- What is pester power? Who has it?

POCKET MONEY AND PESTER POWER

Big companies and advertisers know that children aged between 3 and 14 are the most powerful consumer group. The total spending power of children in this age group is over sixty million pounds per year! So, how do they get so much money? How do they persuade their parents to spend so much money on things for them? Weekly pocket money or a monthly allowance is one way for children to get some money to spend. The other way is by asking again and again, in other words, by pestering their parents until the parents buy what they want.

Young people's consumer habits - Fact File

Sources of income

Parents give 60% of pocket money.

Other sources of money are:

- Odd job earnings (helping with chores around the house for money, a paper round delivering newspapers to houses in their area, cleaning Dad's car, babysitting)
- Handouts such as presents of money from friends or relatives
- Saturday jobs (some teenagers work on Saturdays e.g. in clothes or music shops, supermarkets, sports centres).

Pester power is increasing every year. Children as young as three years old pester their parents to buy the latest videos, sweets and toys.

Follow the layout of a letter of advice:

- > greeting
- > an opening paragraph
- > main part
- > closing paragraph
- > signing off

Dear Sonia,

I am writing to you for advice because I don't know what to do. I am 11 years old and I like music a lot. I really want to learn to play a musical instrument... I would like to learn to play the guitar but I live in a remote village and there are neither music teachers nor musical instruments in my school. The nearest big city is about eighty kilometres far from where I live.

My class visited a music festival in Thessaloniki a week ago and I was so pleased to listen to musicians play so many different instruments. I also heard that if children listen to classical music, they become smarter. I know that if I had money, I would buy many musical instruments for my school.

This is my problem. What could I do? I really want to learn to play the guitar.

Please answer as soon as possible.

Yours,
Maria

Remember to give advice using expressions such as:

If I were you, I would...
You could...
You should... if...
Why don't you...

Set phrases for the opening paragraph:

I am writing to give you some advice about...
I hope I can help you with your problem...

Set phrases for the closing paragraph:

Well, that's what I believe...
I really hope everything goes well.
Keep in touch. ...
I am looking forward to hearing from you.
