LEARNING STRATEGIES When I learn new words...

- I draw a picture to remind me every new word
- I write words/ sentences on pieces of paper and stick them on the wall
- I use the new words in a song/ story
- I play word games with my friends (hangman, scrabble, etc.)

What Can I Do?

Mark came back from school very sad. His mother looked at him and said: 'You look very sad.

It seems that you had a rough day. What happened?'

"Today, in science, the teacher was talking about Earth Day and the environment. Earth Day is a day when every person promises to do something to protect our world from pollution. Mrs. Green was telling us that many companies do not do their best in order to get rid of their industrial waste. She said that our world is getting dirtier and that many animals and plants are becoming extinct. She wants us to think of something we can do to help. On the way home, I thought that there is nothing I can do. I can't stop the companies from polluting our air and dumping toxic waste in the sea and I can't save all of the animals!

There is not anything that I can do to make a difference."

Mark's mother sat for a minute, thinking. "Let me tell you a story that your grandfather told me. I don't know where he heard it, but I think that it might help you think about the problem in a different way." She began:

"One morning a man was walking down a beach covered with dying starfish.

The night before the tide had been especially strong and had washed up thousands of starfish on shore. The man was sorry that all the starfish would die on the beach. He came upon a boy who was throwing starfish back into the ocean as fast as he could. The boy was out of breath and it was obvious that he had done a lot of work as he looked tired.

"Son," the man said, "you might as well quit. There are thousands of them. There is no way you can make any sort of a difference."

The boy did not even stop in what he was doing. He kept bending and throwing but as he did, he spoke to the man: "I can make a difference to this one, and this one, and this one."

And the man knew the boy was right. He began to help return the animals to their home, and kept thinking that sometimes little children can teach elderly people real lessons in life.

Mark stared at his mother. "But he did make a difference, didn't he? To every starfish that he threw back in?" His mother nodded, smiling. He sat for a moment, thinking about what his mother had said.

"So, what it means is that even though I can't change everything, I can make a big difference by doing the little things that matter?"

B. Read the story and the following sentences.
Which one summarises the main idea of the story?

1. There is nothing we can do to save the world.

The whole play is at the back of your book (pp.142-144).

A Play - The Awful 5

Connie: Hi! I'm Connie Lung.

Harry: And I'm Harry Wheezer. We're here at the Environmental Protection Agency to cover a late-breaking story. Some of the world's worst air pollutants are picketing the EPA to protest clean-air legislation.

Connie: In tonight's special report, we will tell you where these pollutants come from and the ways they can hurt people and other living things.

Harry: Let's introduce the folks at home to our pollutant, Carbon Monoxide.

Carbon Monoxide: Yeah, what I do best. I get into the air when cars and trucks don't burn fuel well – but you can't see or smell me.

Connie: Then how can we tell when you're around?

Carbon Monoxide: You'll find out when you breathe me in! I can give you a bad headache and make you really tired (gives an evil laugh).

Harry: Next we'd like you to meet some of the most dangerous air pollutants – the Toxins. (Toxins walk over, carrying posters and chanting.)

Harry: You Toxins are made up of all kinds of poisons. How do you get into the air?

Toxin 1: Hey, man, we come from just about everywhere. Chemical plants, dry cleaners, dangerous-waste sites, paint factories...

Toxin 2: Yeah, and cars and trucks dump a lot of us into the air, too.

Connie: Scientists say you cause cancer and other kinds of diseases.

Toxin 3: Yea, but they can't prove a thing!

Connie: Next we'd like you to meet Sulphur Dioxide.

Harry: I'm sure the folks at home would like to know how you get into our air.

Sulphur: Well, don't they read the newspapers? I've been making the front page at least once a week! Most of the time, I come out from chimneys when power plants burn coal to make electricity.

Connie: And what kinds of nasty things do you do?

Sulphur: Nasty – that's me! (Snickers) I think it's cool to make it hard for some people to breathe. And I can make trees and other plants grow more slowly. But here's the most rotten thing I do: When I get way up into the air, I react with oxygen in water in the sky, and you get acid rain! (Sprays water at the audience).

- B. If you decide to act out the whole play:

- choose your roles
- choose your costumes
- learn your parts
