11. These are the wolf's words from the Red Riding Hood story. Read his words and try to understand the following:

- What does the wolf mean when he says "don't judge a book by its cover"?
- Do you think that the wolf can be sensitive and kind if he wants?

"I will never go near another human as long as I live. I have learned my lesson. So you see, in the end I am not that bad person that you think. I guess that you will just have to get to know me. You know what they say, don't judge a book by its cover. I can be sensitive and kind if I want."

Now imagine that the wolf is in hospital after what has happened to him. Write him a letter of advice. Tell him to stop being mean and learn to be nice and friendly. Remember to use paragraphs and give him some advice. Sign your letter at the end.
Start like this:

Dear Wolf,
I heard that you are in hospital after a bad experience that you had.

I hope you get well soon!

- a. Why do you think you should follow the rules below?
- b. Have you heard of bad experiences that have happened to children?
- c. Do you think it's sensible to inform your parents about where you are going? Why?

SAFETY TIPS

Here are some good rules to follow to protect yourself

1. STAY AWAY FROM STRANGERS

Who is a stranger? If you've seen someone hanging around your playground at school or in your neighbourhood, this does not mean that you know him or her. Although he has a familiar face, he is still a stranger to you!

2. GROWN-UPS SHOULD NOT ASK KIDS TO DO THINGS THAT THE OTHER ADULTS CAN DO FOR THEM

This means that you should not go, or get in a car, with an adult who, for example, asks you for directions. Grownups should not ask you to help them find a lost puppy or kitten, either. If someone asks you for help, say, "Wait here and I'll check with my Mum or Dad." Then go and get your Mum or Dad.

3. ALWAYS ASK YOUR PARENTS BEFORE:

- Going anywhere with anybody
- Leaving the yard, play area, or going to someone's house
- Getting a ride home with someone other than your bus driver or your usual ride
- Getting into a car or going somewhere with somebody even if it's someone you know.

4. ONCE YOU HAVE PERMISSION FROM YOUR PARENTS:

- Tell them where you are going
- Tell them how you will get there
- Tell them who will be going with you
- Tell them when you will be back
- Get back on time and call to let them know when you will be back!

5. IF SOMEONE FOLLOWS YOU ON FOOT OR IN A CAR, STAY AWAY.

You do not need to get near the car to talk to the people inside.

Now imagine you are a mother or a father. Your son/daughter is late from school because he/she spent some time playing at the park with a friend on the way home. How do you feel? What do you say when your child arrives home? Remember how we give advice.
